Red Cross Holds Cleanliness Drive at Bindu Sagar
 (Muhambeswar/Nov 12 (TNR): A cleanliness drive has been organised at Bindusagar Lake on the occasion of Bindu Bandha under the guidance of secretary Indian Red Cross Society, Chiksha State Branch, Muhambeswar C.T.M Siguda (IAS). There is a belief if one dips in Bindusagar Lake all sins are washed away and get rid of all the diseases. On this festival thousands of people from all over the state and other states come to the lake for getting the blessings of God. To keep the holiest lake clean Red Cross joined the mass swachhata drive and cleared the log bands and other waste materials. Youth Red Cross officer Dr. Ajan Kumar, Tripathi and Junior Red Cross Officer Lakshmi Swami led the group of volunteers for cleanliness. Ujjwal Panda coordinated the program with volunteers of BIR Anantapur (Kalyan-KRND) college, Govt. ITI Muhambeswar and other staff. The devotees who were gathered for performing bath also joined and passed Red Cross for the noble work.
